

Refugee Week 2022

20-26th June

Choose to Connect:

Find over 300 handmade 'messages for thought' in and around the city

Read see the world through another's eyes. Special displays in Waterstones (Eastgate Row), Amblongus Books (upper Northgate St) and libraries across the borough

Watch Nassim Soleimanpour's internationally acclaimed 'White Rabbit, Red Rabbit' (age 14+) starring Chester's Matt Baker. 7.30pm Saturday 25th June, at Chester University Kingsway Campus (CH2 2LB). Admission free, donations on door

Shop Fair-trade shop (Wesley Centre, St John's St.) will be featuring work by refugee artisans. Open Tuesday-Saturday 10-2pm

Look at the window display at SHARE shop (Northgate Street)

Join the 10.30am service on Sunday 26th at Chester Cathedral with guest speaker Alison Adams from Leicester Cathedral

Reflect information about the 'messages' and a place to add your own thoughts at the Wesley Centre (St John's Street)

<https://chester.cityofsanctuary.org>